

Mayor's Message

A Message from Mayor Crystal Meloche

December 13, 2024

Hello residents of LaSalle,

On December 7, the Town of LaSalle hosted Breakfast with Santa and The Mayor. It was an exciting event with Santa and his friends, Council, and almost 600 attendees. Thank you to all staff and participants for another successful holiday event.

Canadian Coast Guard Auxiliary Presentation

The Canadian Coast Guard Auxiliary (CCGA) presented a certificate and plaque to LaSalle Fire Service in recognition of 35 years of partnership at the Regular Meeting of Council this past week.

Firefighter Randy Curtis was also presented with a 25-year service certificate, acknowledging his dedication to supporting training and boating education goals. Congratulations to Randy, LaSalle Fire Rescue, and the CCGA!

LaSalle New Year's Eve Fireworks

The annual LaSalle New Year's Eve Fireworks show is scheduled at the Vollmer.

Fireworks begin at 7:30 pm on Tuesday, December 31, and will be launched behind the outdoor pavilion, near the splash pad. Remember to find a parking spot in one of the parking lots on-site by 7:15 pm as parking on the road or shoulder will not be allowed. For more details and a map for parking, visit www.lasalle.ca/nye
