A Message from Mayor Crystal Meloche

May 16, 2025

Hello residents of LaSalle,

Congratulations to Team LaSalle for earning the Distinguished Budget Presentation Award for the tenth consecutive year, for the Town's 2025 budget document.

This continued recognition is a reflection of the hard work, the attention to detail, and the collaboration that go into producing a very high-quality budget document year after year. Thank you to our finance department and to all our departments for their contributions.

Splash Pad—Vollmer Complex

The Splash Pad at the Vollmer Complex is now open daily for the season! Visit anytime between 9:00 am to 9:00 pm. Full details at www.lasalle.ca/splashpad

LaSalle Night Markets

We are approaching the first of the summer series of LaSalle Night Markets on Sunday, May 25, from 4:00 pm to 8:00 pm, at the LaSalle

Civic Centre. The Markets occur on the last Sunday of every month running from May until the end of September.

May to August markets take place at the LaSalle Civic Centre, 5950 Malden Road. September's market takes place at the Event Centre at LaSalle Landing, 970 Front Road. Visit www.lasalle.ca/markets to find more information.

LaSalle Strawberry Festival

We are excited for the LaSalle Strawberry Festival to return on Thursday, June 5, to Sunday, June 8.

Headliners for the Festival are Jody Raffoul Band, Slim Pickerel Band, and Adam Butcher Band. All headliners are local to our region, and we celebrate the opportunity to support local.

For all things strawberry-related, please visit www.lasalle.ca/strawberryfestival

Play for a Cure

Another successful Play for a Cure event took place at the Vollmer

Centre this past weekend. A big congratulations for the Team from Play for a Cure, for their huge success of their event to raise money for cancer research in Windsor-Essex, so congratulations and thank you for hosting it here in LaSalle.

Sport Fields Updates

Subscribe to the Sport Fields web page to receive field updates due to weather and maintenance. Visit www.lasalle.ca/sportfields

Enjoy this beautiful weather!
